Leapley will gerald, of Milwaukee, in a ten-round manage the team, and Walter Oleson will fight, after Fitzgerald had carried things ook after the candidates on the field. his own way for the first seven rounds The candidates are Frick, Whamond, Tay- Coulon then got busy, and in the last lor., Smith, Fay, Crown, Peake, Knockey, Waple, Galb, Woodcock, Lewis, Dodd, Priest, Olesen, Hands, Daly, Rountree, gerald had secured in the earlier part of

Britt-Gans Mill Postponed.

San Francisco, Feb. 14.-Mike Riley, of Conopah, is breaking the news gently to Joe Gans and Jimmy Britt. He says, to begin with, that he will not bring the lisputants of the light-weight championship together on March 18, as he originally intended but that he may put them in the ring in April. A good deal will de-pend upon the way Gans behaves himself

Keogh to Meet Hueston, Buffalo, N. Y., Feb. 14.-Jerome Keogh, of Buffalo, has challenged Thomas Hueston for the world's championship pool emblem, and the match will be played in New York about March 21. The contest will be of 600 points, in three blocks of 200 each night. Keogh is expected to give Hueston a much harder contest than did
